

Questions! Questions! Questions!

Have you found yourself asking questions like: “Why is the world in such a mess?” Or, “Do all roads lead to God?” Perhaps you have wondered, “Why should I believe the Bible?” These are all good questions and the very fact that we can ask them is what sets us apart as human beings. At Fellowship we grapple with life’s toughest questions in a world that doesn’t seem to provide a whole lot of answers. If you have wrestled with questions and would like to find answers, why not join us at Fellowship Baptist this Sunday where there are no dumb questions and all questions deserve an answer.

Questions are good and need answers. Often we feel disconnected because we can’t seem to find a church that will help us get plugged into life. Maybe you are looking for a place that fits you like a favorite pair of jeans. At Fellowship Baptist Church you’ll feel just like that. Regardless of who you are or where you’ve been, at Fellowship you can discover your personal significance and experience a community of real friends. (Proverbs 17:17) Fellowship is a church where you can plug into life and faith; why not join us this Sunday and discover a special family relationship. Bring your questions about life and faith; we believe that God has the answers.

If you have questions about heaven, we have recently published a small book entitled, “Is This Faith For Me?” It’s free and is one that you can study at home at your pace. Why not come by Sunday and visit our Welcome Center and pick one up? Perhaps it will answer some of your questions.
