

His Story Is Your Story, Too!

Have you ever felt an empty spot deep within your heart and wondered about it? Have you ever felt grief but no one to talk to? Have you ever been lonely and had no real friend with which to share your loneliness? Have you ever heard, "For God SO loved the world" and wondered about its meaning to you? No doubt you have heard that opening line to John 3:16, but wondered about what it really means in our daily lives. There is meaning to each life, but it needs to be discovered and understood.

At Fellowship we invite you to join us as we discover the type of practical, everlasting, and sacrificial love God has for us. It's a story that is as exciting as it was in the first century. It's a story that offers guidance for life's challenges. It's a story that offers encouragement in life's difficulties. It's a story that offers hope for eternity. The really exciting part is that His story can be your story too.

Lots of people have excuses for avoiding church - the sermon is boring, the music is too slow, the people are not friendly, the kids don't like church. But instead of excuses, people are finding reasons to go to Fellowship Baptist Church: real relationships, relevant teaching, and a meaningful spiritual experience. So bring the whole family and enjoy His story, which can be your story too.
